SECRET

CIA/SCD Declassification/
Release Instructions on File.

25 September 1964

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, CI

SUBJECT: Presidential Protection

1. On page 159 of The President's Commission Report, there appears this sentence:

"The Commission feels the Secret Service and the FBI, as well as the State Department and the CIA when the President travels abroad, could improve their existing capacities and procedures so as to lessen the chances of assassination."

2. Would you please send me a study on the Agency's contribution to the protection of the President on past overseas trips, covering a period of the last ten years. This should include all aspects of our assistance to the Secret Service as well as a description of procedures in effect throughout the Agency.

3. When we have this study in hand, we will be in a position to examine what additional steps we may be able to take to improve our capabilities.
